Two Brothers Will Be Tried On Murder Charge

Bridgeport, Nov. 17—(UP)—Two 'teen age brothers, Louis and Harry Stowell, are being held for a Superior court grand jury in connection with the hack-saw death of Arthur Bates two weeks ago.

Charged with murder, the brothers will be presented in Superior court during the January term.

An argument which led to the fatal stabbing is said to have started when another youth asked their 17-year-old girl companion for a dance. Bates got involved in the argument and later was killed with a hacksaw blade.
